In the Name of Allah, The Most Gracious, Most Merciful

Praise be to Allah, The Lord (The One and Only) of the Worlds, and blessings and peace be upon our Master Muhammad, upon his Family and his Companions.

Dear noble brothers, when Allah loves you, it is the summit of success. If you get close to Allah, you will get everything. If Allah loves you, every creature will love you. If Allah loves you, He will grant you prosperity, support, and victory, and He will cast security (peace) into your heart, given security is a priceless state that is hard to be reached by most people. If Allah loves you, He will grant you wisdom and satisfaction. If Allah loves you, you will be included in His Divine Providence. If Allah loves you, He will put your enemies at your service.

On the other hand, when someone brings to himself Allah's Wrath and turns away from Allah's Love, he will lose his identity, security and stability.

Furthermore, he will be depressed and distressed, and he will move heedlessly in life, simply because he loses the blessings of security, prosperity, Divine Support, Divine Help, spiritual happiness and satisfaction. Such a person might seem to live a prosperous life, but deep inside, it is a miserable one.
